The roof has already been replaced and new steel beams have been placed.

There is a porch in front of the house where you can enjoy the lovely views of the large plot, of approx. 70,000m<sup>2</sup>.

The pool has been completely restored 2 years ago and is as new!

The land is perfect for keeping all sorts of animals. There is also a ruin (old animals stables) included in the sale.

You will need to install an off grid solar panel system, to have electricity.

Caudete is a town in the province of Albacete, Spain, known for its strategic historical location in the Almansa corridor between Levante and Castile. Historically a border town with a history of conflict, it was once part of the Kingdom of Valencia before becoming a royal town with special privileges, earning the titles of "Royal, Very Noble, Very Loyal and Faithful Town". Today, Caudete is a blend of ancient and modern, with a well-preserved medieval old town alongside contemporary developments and a focus on preserving its natural and cultural heritage.
